

Jed Thomas Greenberg

2230 46th Street NW

Washington, DC 20007

greenbergjed@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

Field School, Washington, DC, Grades 9-12

Field School Internship Program, two weeks each February, Grades 9-12

- Grade 11- Intern, The Motley Fool UK, London, UK
I conducted financial research and wrote two investment articles featured on company website and syndication.
- Grade 10- Intern, Naval Research Lab, Washington, DC
I created strong, non-flammable synthetic materials for U.S. Navy research purposes.
- Grade 9- Intern, Hitachi Foundation, Washington, DC
To support corporate outreach, I created a list of mission-related investment funds to help blue-collar employees.

ATHLETICS:

Track & Field, Winter and Spring, Grades 9-12

- Varsity, Grades 10-12 (Winter Track Co-Captain, Grade 12)
- Participated in winning 4x400 team at Potomac Valley Athletic Conference Championships

Cross Country, Grades 9-12

- Varsity, Grade 11-12 (Co-Captain, Grade 12)

SCHOOL CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES:

Model United Nations, Grades 9-12

- Head of Club, Head Delegate at conferences, Grades 11-12
- Only person in Field School history to win gavel for “Best Delegate” out of 70 student delegates
- Attended conferences at University of Virginia, University of Pennsylvania, Princeton University, George Mason University, and Field Internal Conferences

Journalism, Grades 10-12

Editor-in-Chief, The Field News, Grade 12

- Oversaw all aspects of school newspaper
- Created Twitter feed and other social media platforms for the newspaper
- Implemented process management techniques
- Negotiated with school to create a website for the newspaper, which had previously only been available in hard copy
- Spent over seven hours per week vetting and editing student articles, determining paper layout and managing community outreach
- Implemented surveying system at the start of 2013 to gather student input for articles
- As underclassman, reported and wrote articles, including staff profiles, academic overviews and alumni and club head spotlights

Bike Club, Founder, Grade 11

Math Squad, Grades 10-11

Middle School Mentor Program, Grades 10-12

Debate Club, Founder, Grade 9

SUMMER EXPERIENCES:

Intern, Pacific Legal Foundation (PLF), Grade 12

- Worked 37 hours per week to establish a network of contacts for the new D.C. office
- Conducted research for blog posts in support of individual rights and economic liberty
- Attended and took notes on hearings and working groups

Pre-Calculus Course at Sidwell Friends School, Six Weeks, Grade 11

Family trip to Turkey, Grade 11

Intern, Romney Campaign, Grade 10

Geometry Course at Sidwell Friends School, Six Weeks, Grade 10

CIT, HeadFirst Baseball Camp, Summer, Grade 9

Family trip to Germany and Denmark, Grade 9

HOBBIES & INTERESTS:

Building computers from old and new parts

Woodworking

Cycling

Squash